ECHOES OF THE PAST . . .

Just a century ago the north ward of Waupun bought from Seymour Wilcox the land on which our school stands. Below is the early grade and high school built on this site. In 1872 the south ward built a grade and high school, pictured left. The bell from its old tower stands on our present campus--a link with the past.

Eventually the old north ward school burned. The south ward school was enlarged to become a high school for the whole city. Then, swelling enrollments forced the erection of a new high school in 1911. This, the core of our present building, had three later additions.

Hi Mouse

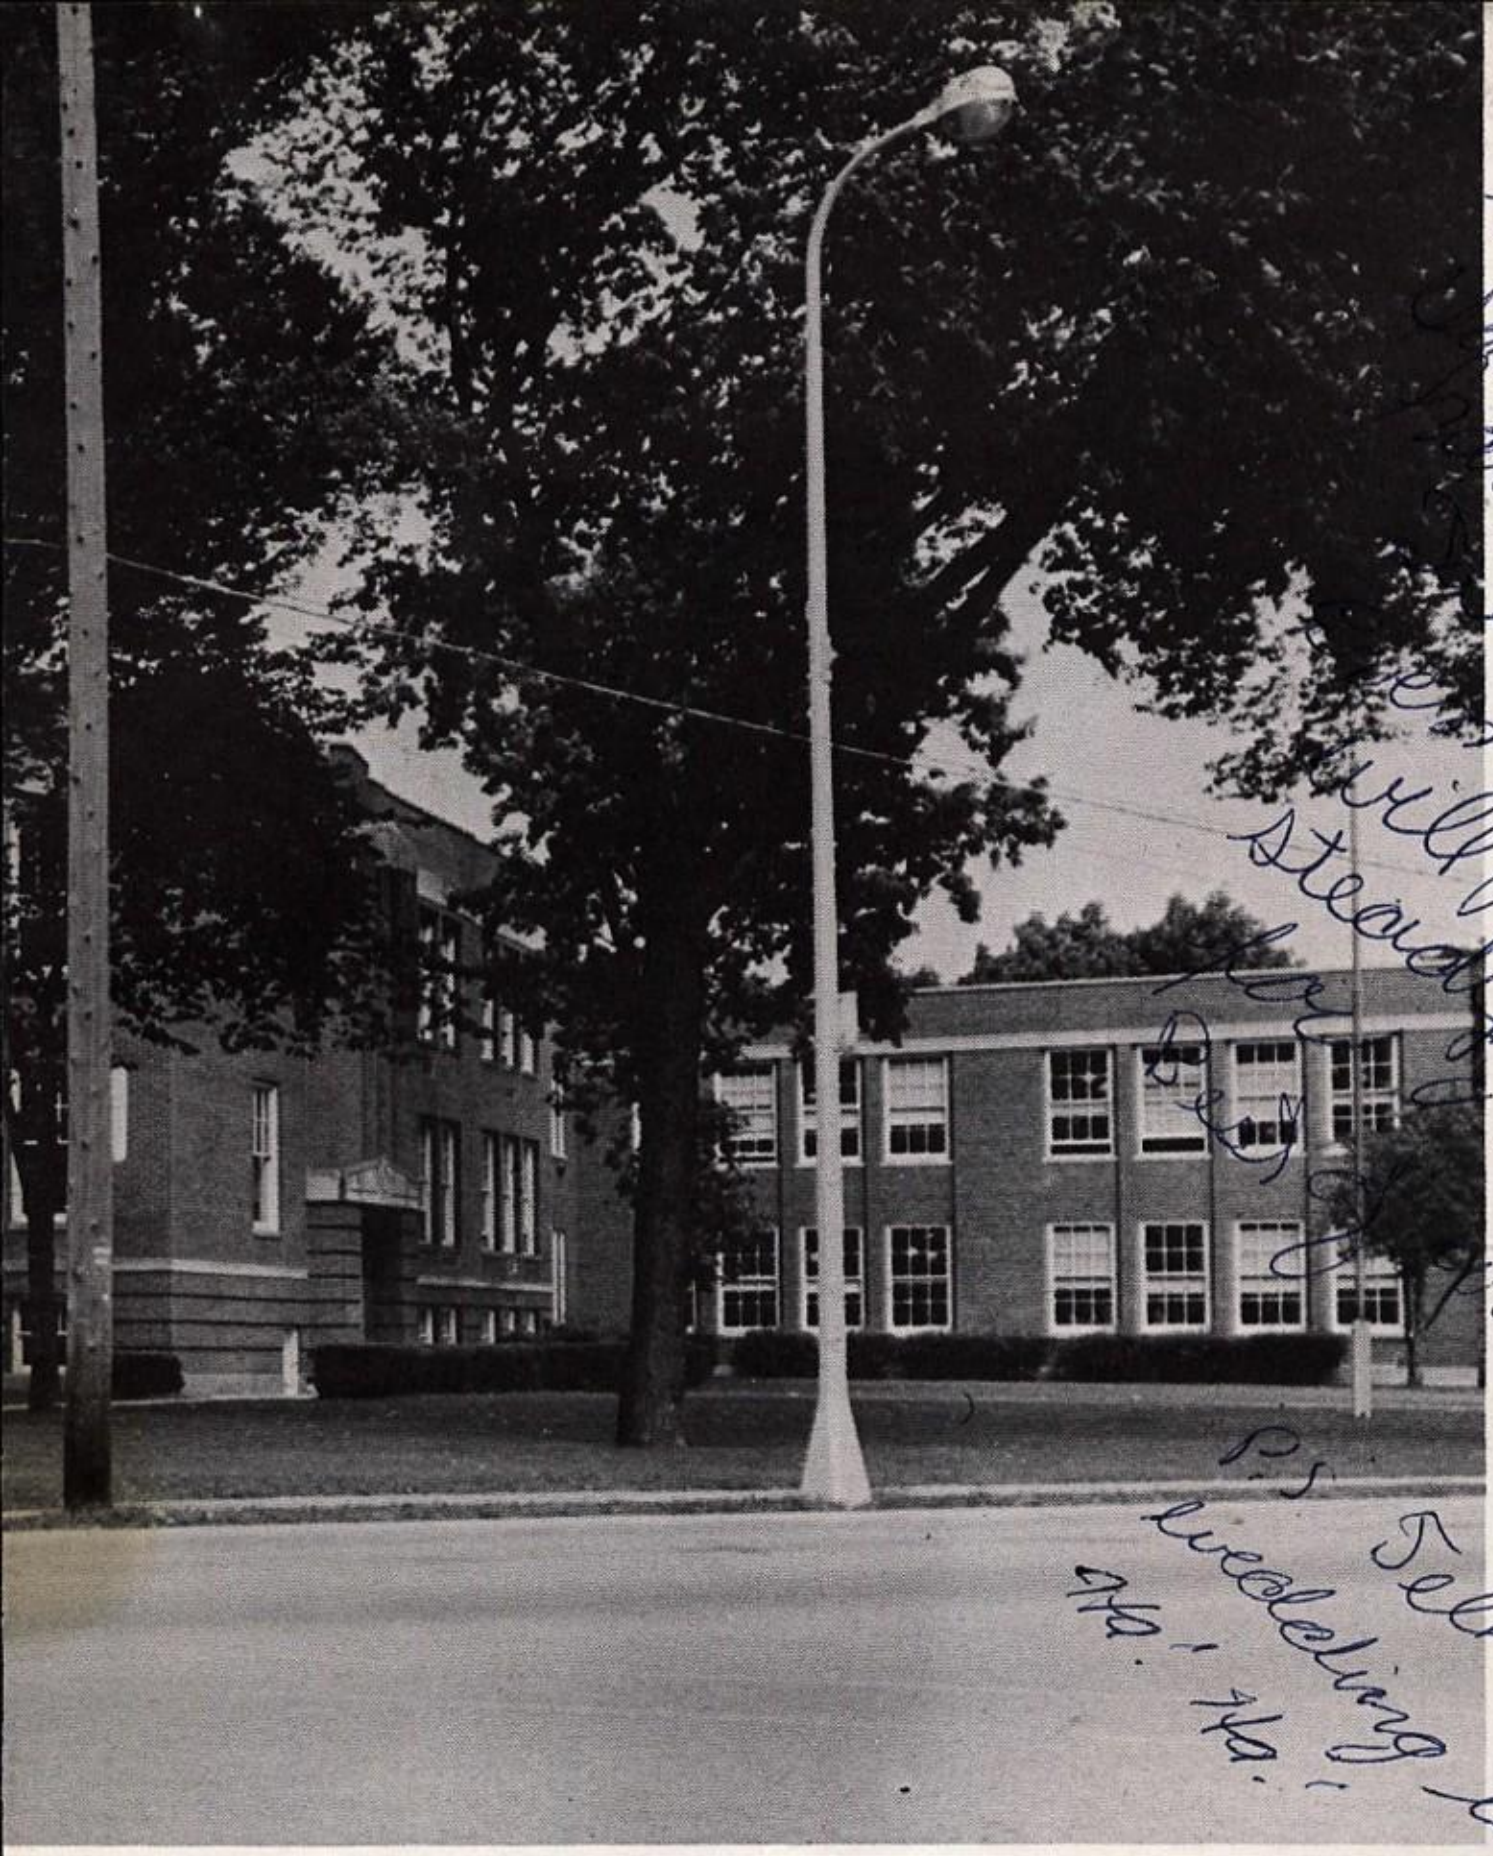
Dedication . . .



Mary (Mouse)

Good luck on your exams and have fun this summer. Make it easy on Jim though you will probably be going steady with him long-long-time. Best wishes.

Tell me when the wedding is going to be.

Ha-Ha!

P.S.

We, seniors of '62, say farewell to the halls and classrooms of this building as we bring down the curtain on its half-century of use as a senior high school. Here we spent sad hours and glad hours . . . we toiled over books and paper airplanes. And we are the last seniors to walk its halls, to shout at its pep rallies, to dance at its prom, to sink a basket in its gym.

No longer will the graduation march still and hush the noisy whispering of an audience in the bleachers. But just as we will go forth toward new horizons, this building will take on a new usefulness as the junior high. The big games may not be played here, but the halls will still ring with youthful shouts and laughter. And so we dedicate this 1962 annual to this building which--as long as it stands --will remain for us a symbol of our high school years.

Our Friend from Finland

We enjoyed our senior from Helsinki, Finland, who is fluent in English, as well as in Finnish, German, and Swedish. He came to us through the American Field service and while he was with us he lived in the Judson Rikkers home.

Hannes, as he asked us to call him, had a strong academic background, and enjoyed, by contrast, one of our vocational courses--auto mechanics. Because he looks forward to a career in the foreign ministry (state department, to us!) he enrolled in United States history and American problems. Other courses were earth science and English IV.

Hi-Y meetings found him accompanying the groups at the piano, which he plays well. He tasted the American high school sports program as our assistant manager of the football team. Hannes enjoyed his stay with us very much, he said.

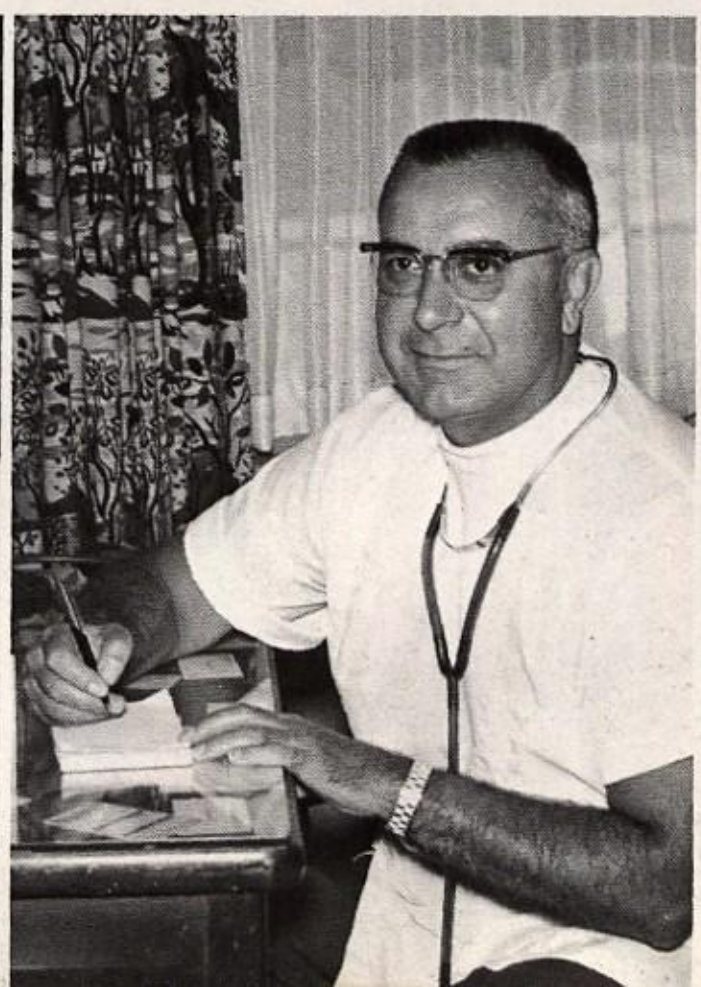
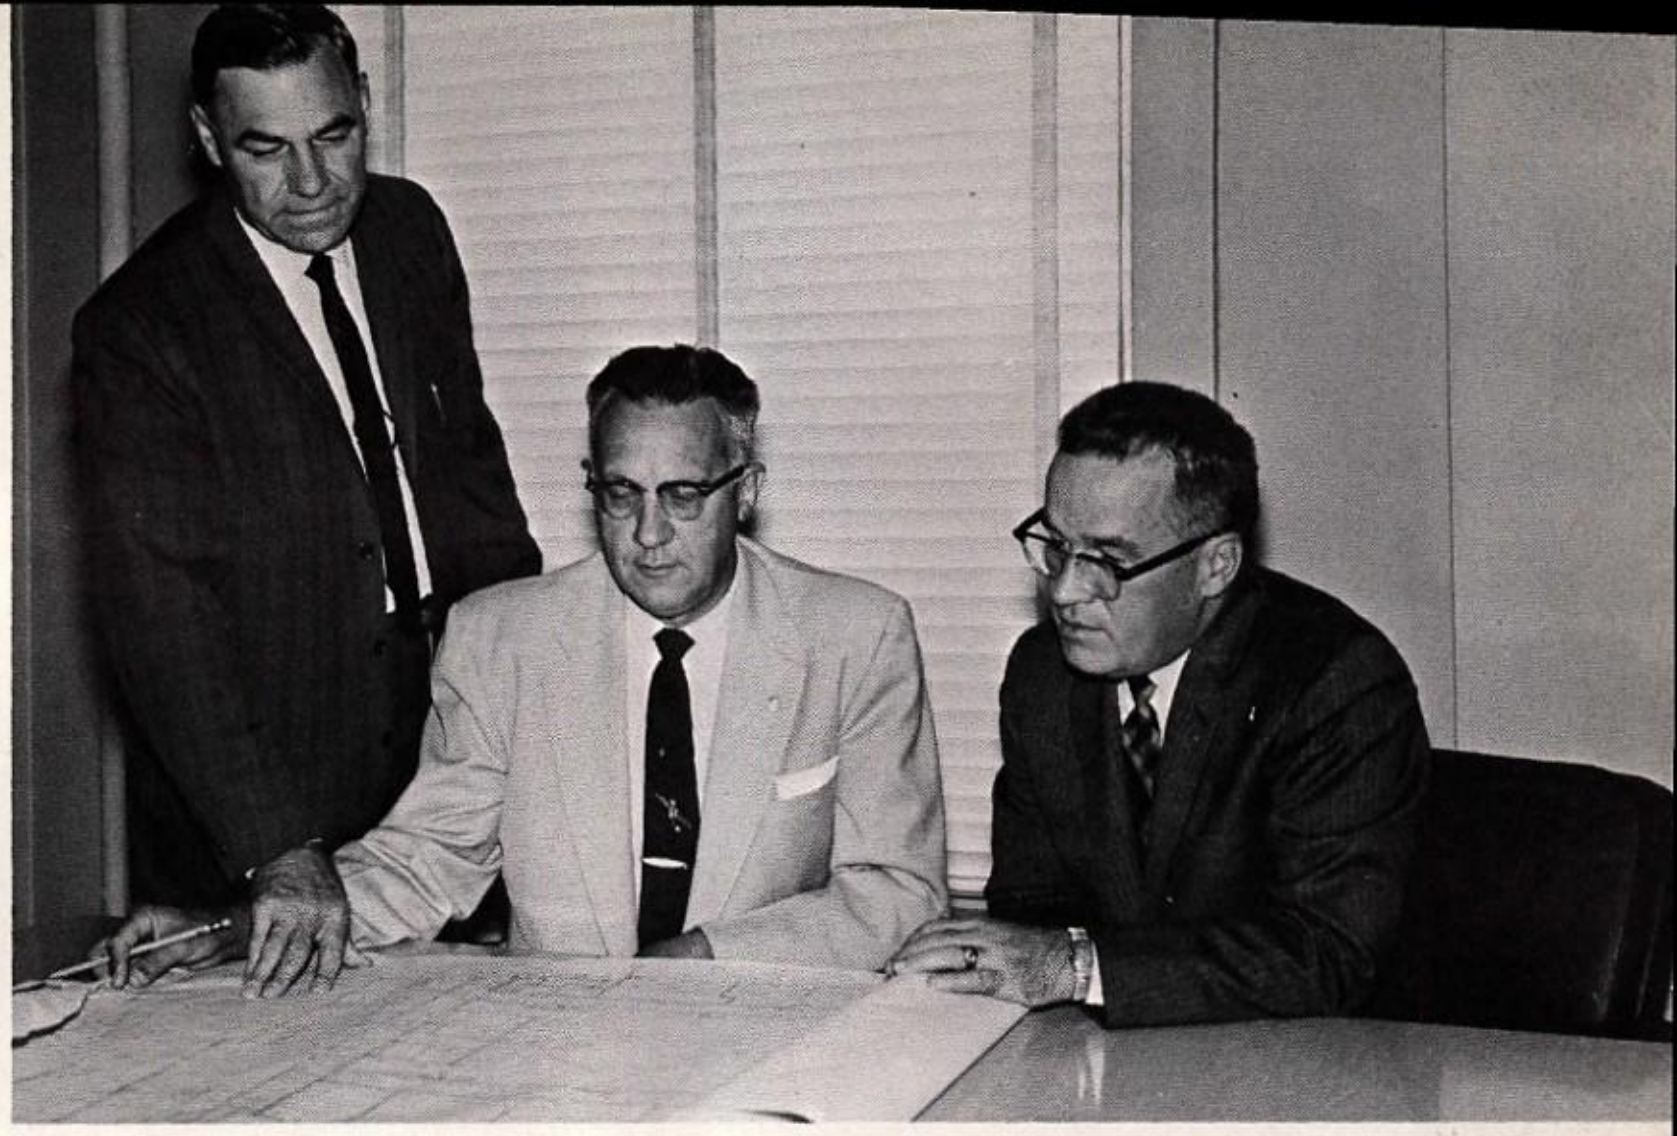
This board runs a business with a yearly budget of a million and a half dollars. Boundaries of our school district are still changing, but they now include more than 70 square miles.

The district educated 2, 240 pupils this year; 803 of these were in our building here.

Board meetings have been many and long as the problems multiplied with the increased size of the district. Since members receive only a token payment for their service, they sometimes make wry jokes about their five-cent-an-hour pay!

LEONARD W. SCHRANK, M. D.
board treasurer. . . city health officer. . . has four children. . . enjoys hunting, fishing, boating. . . fifth year on board





Superintendent H. E. Kujath, Principal Erwin Pfefferkorn, and Guidance Director Eugene Runholm are surveying the blueprints of a new high school building which is rising on a site north of the athletic field across the river.

This will house the three upper high school grades, leaving this building for grades 7, 8, and 9. The new school will have 33 teaching stations, capacity for 725 pupils, and is planned for additions as they are needed.

Our Secretaries

Miss Marilyn Van Loo has charge of attendance besides doing secretarial work for Mr. Runholm and assisting with the bookkeeping and payroll.

Mrs. Vyrna Lawrence handles the school's activity accounts, does Mr. Pfefferkorn's secretarial work, keeps the student records, and is the receptionist.

Mrs. Ruth Radel buys supplies, does the accounting and reporting for the school district, and figures a payroll for 125 employees of the district.

Miss Donna Schouten, the newest addition to the staff, keeps the duplicator spinning, assists with student record work, answering the telephone, and other general office duties.

Pupil Services

PUPILS ARE HAULED . . .

William Edmunds contracts with the board of education to transport our Waupun students. This year our building has 184 bus riders. These yellow "cabs" cover 200 miles each morning and night, miles divided into five routes.

PUPILS ENJOY A CLEAN BUILDING . . .

Peter De Graff, superintendent of building and grounds, says it takes about 25 gallons of soap to stock the washrooms of our building, 65 gallons of wax to keep our floors shining, and 112 man-hours a week to keep it swept. The men who kept our building sparkling this year were Delmar Hermann, Lawrence Schouten, and Alfred Pahl.

PUPILS ARE FED . . .

This year saw about 250 pupils eating lunch in the cafeteria operated by Mrs. Henry Amacher and Mrs. Redforn L. Meenk. Mrs. Edna Cleveland did the accounting and sold lunch tickets each noon. Students wasted no time in eating --tables had to be put away in time for fifth hour gym classes to use the room!

Waupun High's Mixed Chorus

Mixed chorus is an elective course that meets five days a week, for one credit, under the direction of Miss Ann Seibel.

Eight members took part in the vocal clinic at Oshkosh State College in the fall. The chorus sang at the community tree-lighting ceremonies and at the annual community Christmas concert. They presented a Spring Concert jointly with the band; and they provided musical numbers for Baccalaureate and Graduation programs.

The group offered a music assembly at which winners in the solo-ensemble contests appeared. Besides competing in the solo-ensemble contests, the group sang in the concert event of the Spring Music Festival. The annual trip to hear professionals took the group to see and hear THE SOUND OF MUSIC this year.

After try-outs for membership, the Senior High School Band opened the 1961-62 school year by playing at the Dodge County Fair's Band Day, under its director Mr. Hansen, with the largest membership in years--110 strong.

With the football season, the "Marching 100" thrilled the fans with intricate maneuvering and precision marching on the field before games and between halves. The basketball season was enlivened by the Pep Band at all home games.

Solo-ensemble time brought 110 entries for contest work. In January the band offered its Mid-Winter Concert. Spring brought the Music Festival. And a candy sale financed the annual band trip which concluded the year's special events.

The tight schedule for the use of the gym keeps the girls from carrying on as extensive a program as they would like. Perhaps the new school will change this.

Homecoming

Homecoming Day dawned clear and bright, promising perfection. Festivities had begun the night before with the skits and bonfire. Juniors took first place with their skit, "The Three Little Pigskins." The seniors won second honors with "The Roving Reporter."

Mark Lemmenes was chairman of the Homecoming parade, held Friday afternoon. Juniors took a first again with their float, "We're Bound to Win."

After a hard fight, the Warriors won a 19-6 victory over Mayville that night. During the half, our marching band entertained with precision drill marching. Royalty was crowned at the dance following the game. Jackie Eichstadt and Larry Maas were dance chairmen; the theme was "Blue Moon." Herbie Britzeman's orchestra played. General chairman of Homecoming events was Jim Gadbaw.

Queen Mary Pinkerton and King Darryl Hermann

Class members spent many hours creating a giant, illuminated clam shell to hold the punch bowl, wall murals with an under-the-sea theme, and a chest of treasures. Mobile fish swam above the heads of the couples as they danced past wrecked ships resting on sands at the bottom of the sea.

After the prom, the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs were hosts at the country club where students enjoyed snacks and dancing. Cameras clicked everywhere that night, preserving memories on film.

Jackie Eichstadt and Jerry Kaminski were co-chairmen of the event. Gail Bruins was chairman of the art committee; Gayla Krause, of refreshments; Andy Schouten, building; Regg Fletcher, clean-up; Barbara DeMotts, grand march; Dave Whiting, lighting; Ann Lemmenes, tickets; Mary Pinkerton, election; and Luann Schmidt, coat room.

GRAMERCY GHOST is a light comedy-farce, the plot dealing with the ghost of a Revolutionary War soldier who has to deliver a message before his spirit can be at rest. His presence in the house untied one love knot and resulted in a new and satisfactory romance between two of the principal characters.

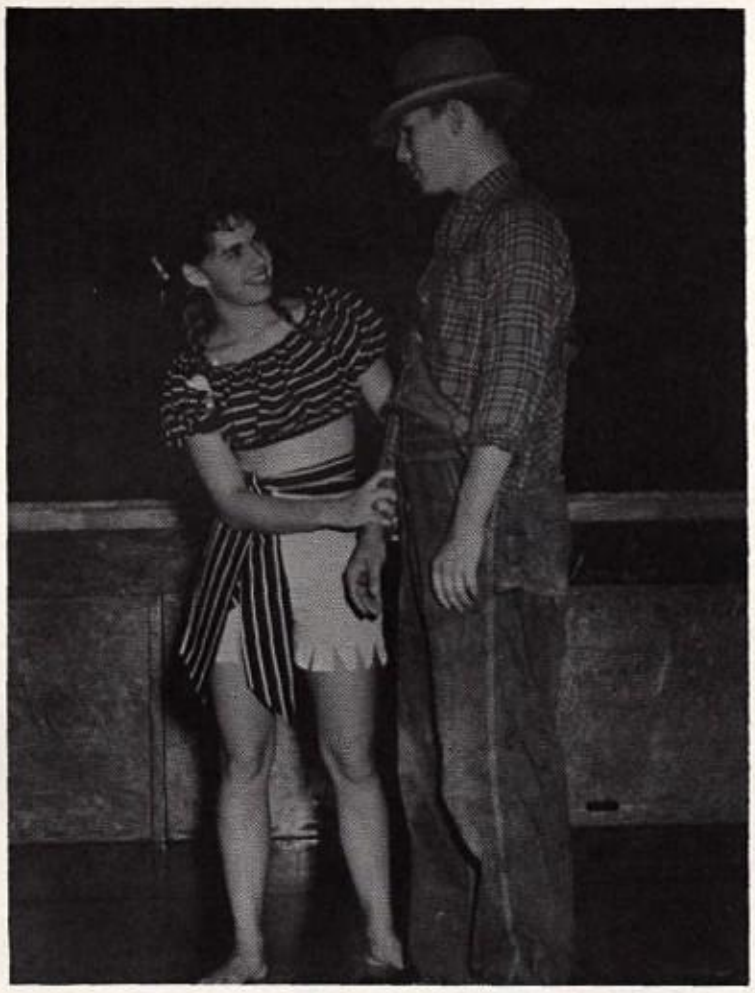
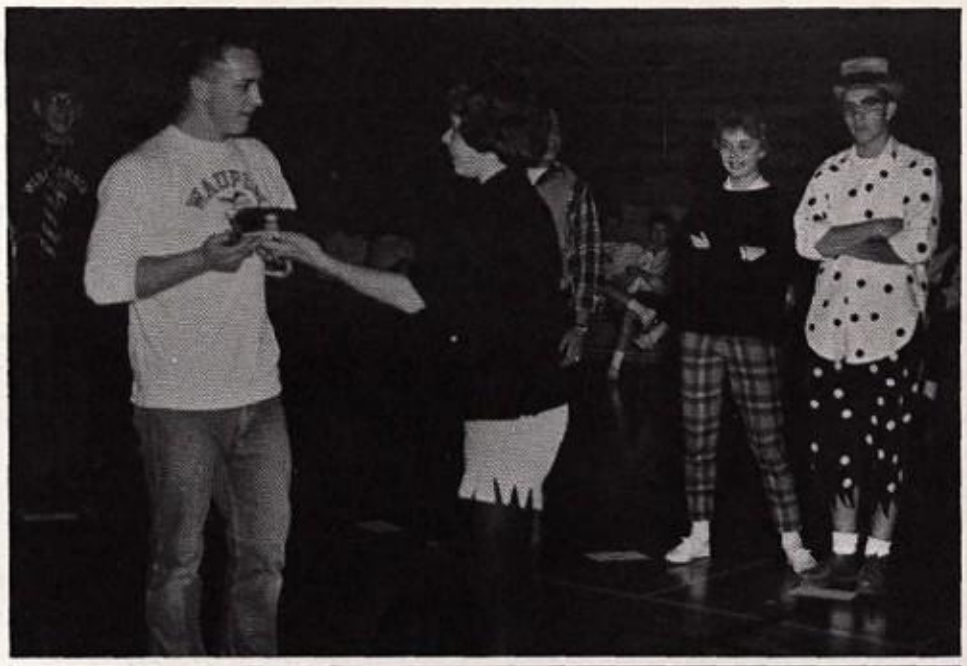
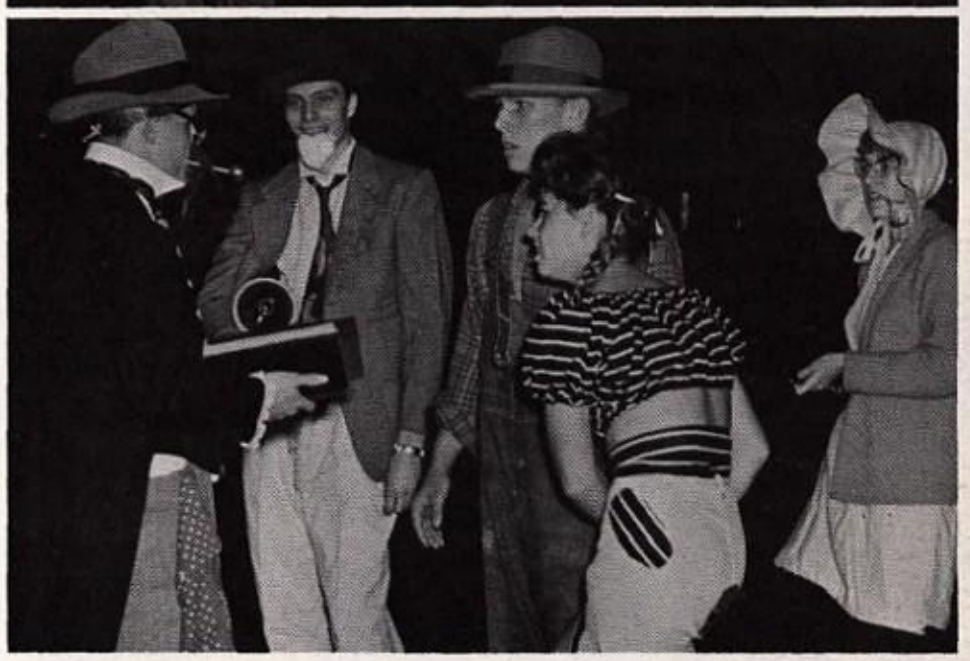
Dogpatch, U.S.A.







Dogpatch was jumping again when Daisy Mae (Lynda Dykstra) began her struggle to catch Lil' Abner (Bing Rikkers). Marryn' Sam was there to tie the knot when Daisy Mae--with Yokum help--got Lil' Abner settled down.

Daisy Mae wasn't the only Dogpatch girl after her boy--73 other gals got in on the fun, too.

Seniors in the Spotlight

Since 1927, a highlight of Class Day has been the presentation of the Wooden Shoe award to a junior boy or girl who has been selected by the faculty as typifying the best all-around student. Scholarship, leadership, and participation in student activities are considered. The 1961 award went to Layton (Bing) Rikkers, pictured at left.

The 1962 Betty Crocker award winner was Ann Lemmenes pictured below. This is an annual contest sponsored by General Mills, to encourage better homemaking. State and national winners receive scholarships.

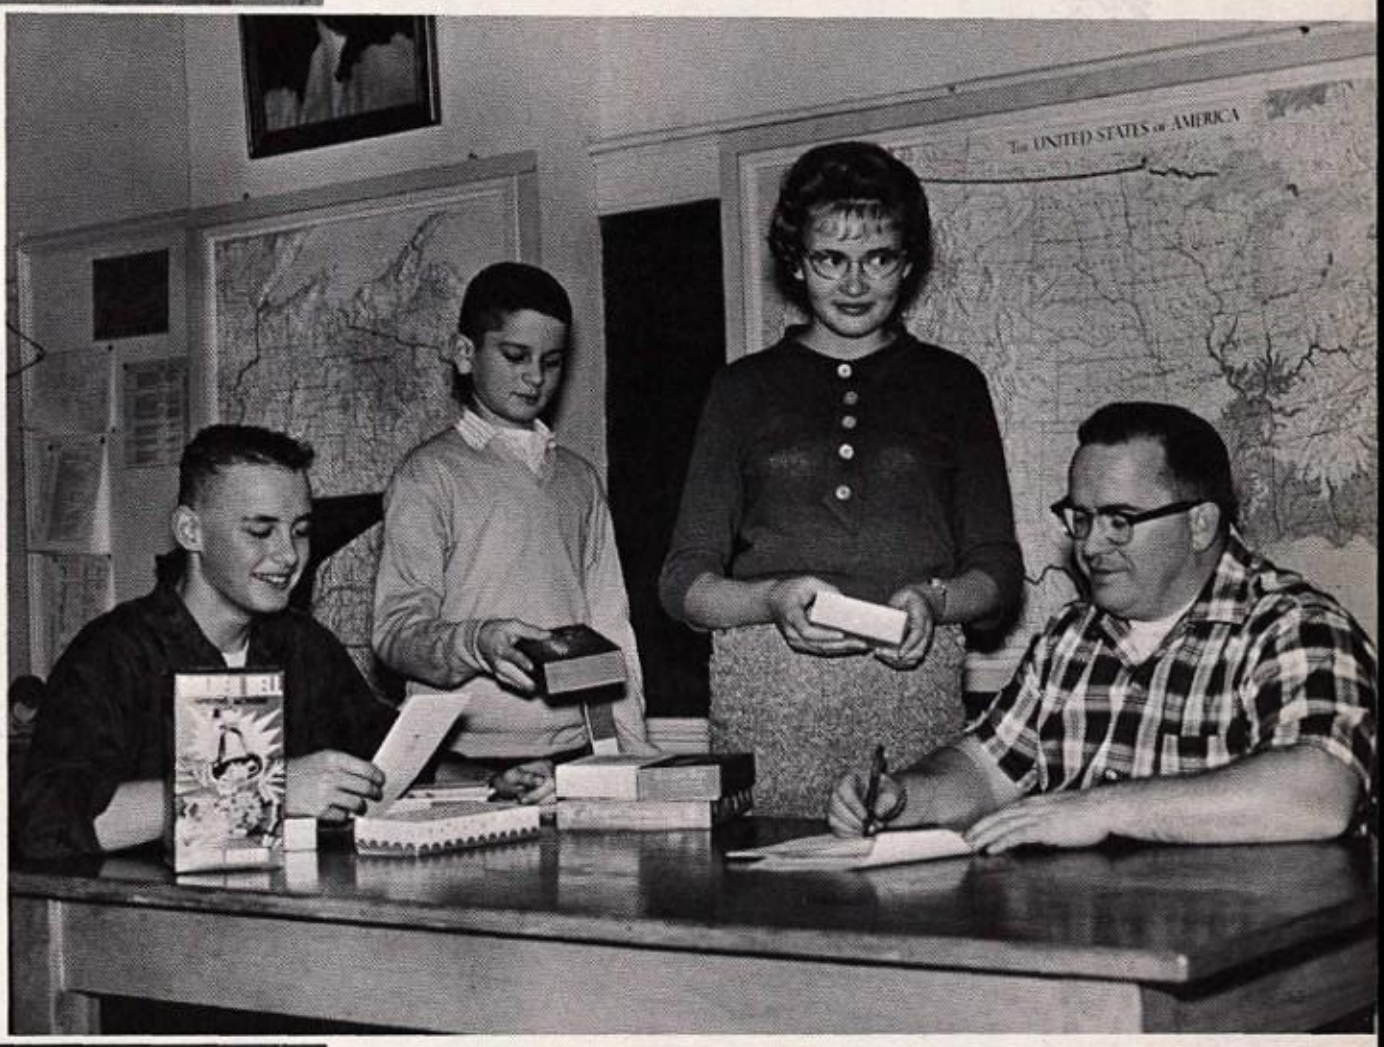
Eighth Grade Makes Milwaukee Trip

During the past years, one of the highlights of the Eighth Grade year has been a trip by bus to Milwaukee. Mr. Hintz, faculty sponsor, points out that the event gives students a chance to develop a new sense of personal responsibility which helps prepare them for high school years.



Mr. Hintz and class officers check in supplies for the Christmas card sale.

Careful records have to be kept.

The tour begins early on a Saturday morning in May. It allows students to stretch their legs at Bradford Beach, then continues to the Layton Art Gallery, the Public Museum and the Milwaukee Library. A lunch and shopping break is followed by a relaxing two hours at a Braves game.

A quick tour of State Fair park, an hour at the new Milwaukee County Zoo, and inspection of the miniature railroad concludes the packed schedule. The cost of the trip is met in part by selling Christmas candy and cards as well as by selling refreshments at games.

Mary,

Lots of luck on your exams. Especially Social. Don't feel bad if you flunk because I'm going to flunk science. I sure have had fun with you and hope we have more fun together. It seems that this school year can be almost over and that next year we'll be freshmen. The time just seems to fly past. Well I guess I've had enough and besides I can't think of anything else to write.

Love,
Tim

I guess I better start writing even though I don't know what to write about yet. I've been going with you for a few months now and it sure has been fun. You're the first girl that I've ever really liked very much. I've liked you ever since I first got to know you very well and hope we keep going together for quite a while. Why don't you go to church camp? I'm study hall when I don't have anything to do I just sit and think about you. You don't know how much I've wanted to tell you these things as well as others but it's a lot easier for me to write them.

Love,
Tim

Dear Mary:
I like what Tim wrote! - wow! Remember that time at the dance; and both of us racing to Tim. I guess you won. Oh well, you have fun with Tim this summer; and I'll have fun with Larry G. & Arlyn. I don't know what else to write except I geeess you a pretty nice kid. - (just Kidding)

Love,
Jane
